Dear Mr. Casey:

Your invitation to join you at CIA Headquarters in Langley, Virginia on October 12 has been received. I am honored to have been invited to participate in discussions so vital to the welfare of our nation.

I regret that a previous commitment will prevent my accepting your invitation; however, I want you to know that I am of the opinion that all of higher education can benefit from the agenda you have planned for October 12.

I thank you for the invitation and join my faculty and staff in wishing for you a very successful dialog with representatives from the academic community.

Sincerely,

Thomas W. Cole, Jr.
